NOTES TROUBLE.
Causes Trouble in the Wheelright Family—A Peculiar Case.
THE BLAIR VS. BLAIR DIVORCE
Birthright Concert—Y. L. M. I. A. Conference—Furey to Waive Examination.

An action for divorce has been filed in the second district court by Catherine Blair against James S. Blair. Both parties to the action are well known throughout Weber county. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Ogden City, Utah, May 28, 1884, that there is born to them three children, two girls and a boy, who are all under nine years of age. That the defendant has failed to provide his wife with the common necessities of life and the plaintiff alleges she is in indigent circumstances. She prays for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony, for custody of the three children, for the return of the property of the plaintiff and for permanent alimony and costs of suit. George Halverson is attorney for plaintiff.

FORTUNE TELLER CAUSED IT.
The divorce suit of William R. Wheelright against Elizabeth Wheelright came up for hearing before Judge Rolap. The defendant permitted the suit to go by default. The testimony of the plaintiff and his son James Wheelright was taken, which was in the mind of the defendant. The plaintiff, calling him vile names and accusing him of lascivious conduct with other women, all of which the plaintiff declared was brought on her mind by the fortune teller, but that there is absolutely no truth in it. The plaintiff also testified that he has decided to live with his three children at his home in Ogden, which brings in the plaintiff's wife, who is the plaintiff's mother, and the plaintiff's wife, who is the plaintiff's mother, and the plaintiff's wife, who is the plaintiff's mother.

MISS BERKHOE'S CONCERT.
The concert given last evening at the Ogden tabernacle by Miss Agatha Berkhoef, assisted by Prof. Willard and Miss Spencer, was a most delightful and successful musical event. The audience was pleased with each number which brought forth prolonged applause.

Dear Friends:—I have received copies of the resolutions passed by your organization Feb. 25, and am very proud of them, and thank you for them, but do not think that I deserve so much appreciation for simply saying what I most earnestly believe. I cannot here my friends traduced without a protest, and especially friends whose names of life I know so well as that of the woman who has been in the days present at the hearing at the capitol, and hope for the best, but cannot tell what prejudice may do. History may repeat herself.

Yours truly,

The ward bishopric was in attendance, and took an active interest in the proceedings, as also were the officers of the society, who, with the joint cooperation of the entire ward, prepared one of the most enjoyable events ever held in Elgin. In addition to the program rendered an original poem was read from President Martena Hjort, on the founders of our sister societies, Eliza R. Snow and Zina D. Young. It is replete with replete with respect to the honored sisters and stimulus to the present workers. A luncheon was served and the whole closed with a ball in the evening.

Special Correspondence.

Pocatello, Idaho, March 1.—A very interesting case is before Judge Johnson this week, it being a will contest by the children of W. J. McManamy against their stepmother, Alice McManamy, who secured the greater portion of the deceased's property by a change of the will just before his death. Many prominent witnesses have been summoned, and the proceedings are kept out of the papers. The estate and cash will not exceed five figures, but this is a large amount involved for the city and considering the fact that Mr. McManamy was a passenger brakeman.
